THE FLEECING OF AMERICA

Comparison of top 7 companies by industry

Drug Companies: $20.3
Auto Companies: $15.4
Oil Companies: $13.6
Airline Companies: $4.7
Entertainment Companies: $4.2

Exorbitant prices for medications fuel drug companies’ massive profits

Source: Fortune Magazine
Merck’s profits were higher than whole industries in the Fortune 500

Merck’s almost $6 billion in profits made it the 13th most profitable company in the nation.

- Merck: $5.8 billion
- Airline Companies in the Fortune 500: $4.6 billion
- Entertainment Companies in the Fortune 500: $4.1 billion
- Construction Companies in the Fortune 500: $2.5 billion
- Railroad Companies in the Fortune 500: $2.4 billion
Drug companies pocket a far higher percentage of profit than any other industry!

Source: Fortune Magazine